Stellenbosch Business School Executive Development

Your Partner in First-Class Business Learning

About Us

At Stellenbosch Business School Executive Development (SBS-ED), a private entity within the distinguished Stellenbosch University, we pride ourselves on delivering first-class business learning. With this long legacy, we have cultivated a reputation of excellence in delivering relevant and innovative executive development solutions across the continent.

Quality Assurance

Our courses are quality assured by Stellenbosch Business School, accredited by the Higher Education Quality Council, and certified by Stellenbosch University. We are also accredited by the Botswana Qualifications Authority, and we accredit our bespoke programmes with the Mauritius Qualifications Authority.

Triple Crown Accreditation

We have been awarded three prestigious international accreditations, resulting in what is known as the Triple Crown Accreditation. Only 1% of business schools worldwide can boast this honour.

Alumni Association

Successful completion of our middle, senior and executive level programmes offers participants access to the Stellenbosch Business School Alumni Association, providing extensive networking opportunities with over 30 000 alumni, industry leaders and global stakeholders to enhance professional connections and opportunities for collaboration.

Our Footprint

We have presented courses in over 18 countries across the African continent. With our commitment to flexible business learning, our development solutions are accessible from any location.
